BECAUSE NO ONE WAS BORN A PARENT WORKSHOP

PRESENTED BY EDUARDO CUEVAS ON SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6TH, 2021

This workshop has the purpose of introducing the participants to a clear and broad presentation of the core principles that guide the Montessori educational approach. It is imperative as a means to better understand the goings on of the children in the Montessori prepared environment. It empowers attendees to implement those concepts at home as well as partner with the school's intended program. It is best taken advantage of when both parents attend, experiencing the topics as a couple.

What makes this course unique is the opportunity to livestream the full-day Parent workshop "Because No One Was Born A Parent," first discussed on Day 1 and experience first-hand in its delivery and response from the parents; many listening to Montessori proposals for the first time. The insights gleaned from the workshop serve as a basis for the work designed for the following two days of the course.
