Parent-Infant Program

"Hence the care we must take of all the conditions surrounding the newborn babe, so that he will not be repelled and develop regressive tendencies, but feel attracted to the new world into which he has come."

Maria Montessori, The Absorbent Mind

Our classes are designed to stimulate and engage the infant child in sensorial exploration for cognitive, social, and emotional development.

Each session includes 2 group discussions (adults only).

Dates for group discussions:

Feb. 06 and 24 / March 27 and April 14 /

May 01 and 18

Discussion topics include, but are not limited to:

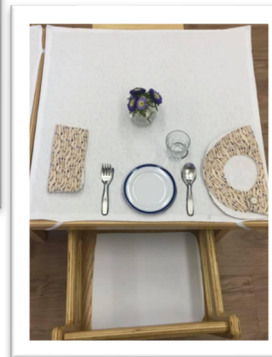

- How to set up a Montessori Home Environment
- Weaning
- Language Development
- Toilet Learning
- Movement
- Self-Discipline

Our beautiful, prepared environment offers individualized support for each family as they navigate these first few years of their child's life.
